Percival Court is located within easy walking distance of the beautiful promenade and floral gardens of Southport.

This development offers residents' a variety of social activities and the opportunity to enjoy Southport's many attractions. Percival Court is situated in Lord Street, a Victorian canopied boulevard which includes a Grade II listed shopping arcade dating from 1898. There is a wide range of independent and speciality shopping in town, in addition to national brands. Cafes, tea rooms and restaurants are plentiful, together with theatres, art centre and library. Southport also boasts the oldest iron pier in the country, a number of golf courses and a range of festivals and shows: including the world famous Flower Show. Among the many places of interest to visit is the historic village of Churchtown with its thatched cottages and Botanic Gardens.
